Living the Paschal Mystery
The signs of the end of time alert us to the fact that our striving to be faithful disciples has cosmic proportions. Living the paschal mystery doesn’t just have consequences for ourselves, but also for all others. When we break out of a chronological understanding of time (that is, time as duration, with past, present, and future) and break into God’s eternal time (time without duration in which everything just is), we can begin to understand how even the little acts of kindness and self sacrifice we perform each day affect all that is. Our unity with Jesus is deepened by striving to care for others, help others, shower others with dignity and respect. Here is a sobering thought: the way we care for the children, are honest at the workplace, take leisure time to care for ourselves affects our whole world and everyone in it. This is the privilege of discipleship: we can make a difference! This is the effect of faithful discipleship: the world is a better place—we have readied it for Christ’s Second Coming at the end of time by our faithful and grace-filled living now.

The Feast of Saint Margaret of Scotland: Nov. 16th
Margaret was an English princess. She and her mother sailed to Scotland to escape from the king who had conquered their land. King Malcolm of Scotland welcomed them and fell in love with the beautiful princess. Margaret and Malcolm were married before too long. As Queen, Margaret changed her husband and the country for the better. Malcolm was good, but he and his court were very rough. When he saw how wise his beloved wife was, he listened to her good advice. She softened his temper and led him to practice great virtue. She made the court beautiful and civilized. Soon all the princes had better manners, and the ladies copied her purity and devotion. The king and queen gave wonderful example to everyone by the way they prayed together and fed crowds of poor people with their own hands. They seemed to have only one desire: to make everyone happy and good. Margaret was a blessing for all the people of Scotland. Before she came, there was great ignorance and many bad habits among them. Margaret worked hard to obtain good teachers, to correct the evil practices, and to have new churches built. She loved to make these churches beautiful for God's glory, and she embroidered the priest's vestments herself. God sent this holy Queen six sons and two daughters. She loved them dearly and raised them well. The youngest boy became St. David. But Margaret had sorrows, too. In her last illness, she learned that both her husband and her son, Edward, had been killed in battle. Yet she prayed: "I thank You, Almighty God, for sending me so great a sorrow to purify me from my sins.” Her feast day is November 16th.

Are you Being Called to God?
In today’s gospel, Jesus tells the crowd that they will be persecuted because of his name, but that the persecution will lead to their giving testimony. Priests, religious women and men, and deacons are called to give testimony to God’s love in their ministry and in the way they live their lives. Could God be calling you to priesthood or to religious life? If you think so, call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113, vocations@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations!

Marriage Moments
Are you both healthy? Hopefully yes, but in any marriage there are times when one spouse gets sick. Whether it's a simple cold or a serious illness how do you like to be treated when you're not feeling well. Do you want to be left alone or get lots of tender, loving care? What kind of care?

Parenting Pointers
November is National Adoption Month. Whether or not your own children are adopted, talk with them about the generosity of those who adopt, foster parent, or simply mentor children who are not biologically connected to them.

In the Gospel this week we hear Jesus saying to “not be deceived”, but to remain with Him and to persevere. Bring it Home this week by talking as a family about what might cause family members to be distracted. Would material wants, the events of the world, friends or other family members cause anyone to turn away from God? Make a plan to determine what you will do if distracted. Visit an Adoration Chapel to remind members of your family to stay focused on Jesus.

Catholic Charities to benefit from first Bishop’s 5K Run/Walk on Saturday, November 19, 2016: 10am to 2pm

Bellevue State Park, 800 Carr Road, Wilmington

Saturday, November 19, 2016 is the first running of the Bishop’s 5K Run/Walk for the benefit of Catholic Charities. The race will kick off at 10 am at Bellevue State Park, 800 Carr Road, Wilmington, 19809. Following the run/walk, race participants, family, and friends are invited to take part in a fun event. To learn more about the Bishop’s 5K, and learn how you can sponsor this first time event, visit Catholic Charities website at cdow.org/charities.

To register for the race and the post-event celebration, visit www.bishops5K.com.

Did you know that one out of every 10 residents of the Diocese receive at least one service each year from Catholic Charities? The first Bishop’s 5K Run/Walk will bring attention and resources to assist Catholic Charities in its continuing efforts to reach out to underserved areas of our Diocese.
